5/21/84 MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK
Mr. Fuji & Tiger Chung Lee W. Tony Garea & Brian Blair (Lee pinned Garea, with a Leg Cradle Roll Up, after receiving some outside help from Fuji. The referee, of course, was unaware of Fuji's rule infraction.)
Jimmy Snuka W. Greg Valentine -DQ. (Valentine was disqualified, by the referee, for doing a wild number on Jimmy. It happened like this: Both Jimmy and Greg took their bout to the ringside floor, and Greg then dropped Snuka, groin first, on the steel barrier, that seperates the fans from the wrestlers. When the referee saw what Valentine did to Jimmy, he then disqualified Greg. This match was alright, with some good action.)
Akira Maeda W. Rene Goulet (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Vicious Karate Kick, to the upper body.)
Paul Orndorff W. Tito Santana -C.O.R. (Santana was counted out, outside of the ring, by the referee, when he missed, with what appeared to be a Fantastic Flying Forearm Smash Charge, at Paul. Santana then flew over the top ring rope, and landed on the ringside floor, and could not get back into the ring, on time. Paul was, indeed, the proud winner, in this event.)
Jesse Ventura W. Salvatore Bellomo (By submission, with a Devastating Over The Shoulder Standing Back-Breaker.)
Sgt. Slaughter D.DQ. The Iron Sheik (The Sarge was cut bloody, on his forehead, due to The Sheik's curved boot. The Sheik did a routine on the Sarge, to no end, he even bit the Big Marine. The Sheik used a very good Salto Suplex, on The Sarge, and The Big Marine executed a High Vertical Suplex, on The Iranian. Slaughter hit The Sheik, with his Famous Cannon Clothesline, also. The end came, when The Sarge struck the referee, to the mat floor, and then The Iranian did likewise. The referee then had no choice, but to disqualify both combantants, for their rough tactics against an official. Soon after, The Sheik's curved boot came off, compliments of The Big Marine. Some wrestlers from the dressing room, also, jumped into the ring, to join this fracas. This was a very wild battle, from start to finish.)
The Wild Samoans #1 (Afa) & #2 (Sika) & #3 (Samu) W. Bobo Brazil & Rocky Johnson & Special Delivery Jones (Samu pinned Jones, after some foul tactics, by Afa and Sika. The Referee was not aware of the rule infractions. Brazil's face appeared to be cut bloody, in this rough bout. Bobo was just too much, to say the least.)
The Fabulous Moolah W. Wendi Richter -DQ. (Richter was disqualified, for striking the referee, to the mat floor. Wendi gave Moolah what for, in this tough showdown. This was a real wild skirmish. Moolah was alright, and Richter was terrific.)
Hulk Hogan W. David Shultz (By pin, after a Tremendous Flying Leg Drop, across the upper body. The Hulk looked pretty good, in this bout, and so did Shultz. Both men used some of their favorite moves, on each other, during this punishing ordeal.)
George Steele W. Terry Daniels (By submission, with a painful Flying Hammer-Lock hold. Steel was as wild as ever.)
Roddy Piper W. Ivan Putski -DQ. (Putski was disqualified, for nailing the referee, by error, of course. The miscalculated wallop was meant for Roddy. Piper was pretty good in this bout, and Ivan was alright. Piper was tickled pink, that he won the decision, over The Polish Powerhouse.)

A NIGHT OF CHAMPIONS

5/29/84 THE BRENDAN BYRNE MEADOWLANDS ARENA, EAST RUTHERFORD, NEW JERSEY
Ronnie Garvin W. Jake Roberts (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a dynamite fist to the face. Ronnie showed Jake that his hands are extremley deadly weapons. Both grapplers looked very good, in this rough battle. This was another chapter, in their on going feud.)
El Gran Apollo D.C.O.R. Les Thornton (Both men were slugging it out, on the outside ring apron. They were then promptly counted out, outside of the ring, by the referee. Apollo and Thornton put forth a pretty good effort, in this classic confrontation, between two, of the sports best combantants.)
Dusty Rhodes W. The Assassin (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a sensational Flying Elbow Drop, to the upper body. Dusty then unmasked The Assassin, who quickly covered his face, and fled to the dressing room, pronto. Rhodes looked very good, and the masked man looked alright, in this tough bout.)
The Invader #1 W. The Great Kabuki (By pin, with a tremendous Flying Cross Body Press, into a One Leg Cradle. Both wrestlers looked real good in this match. Before the bout started, Kabuki blew his colored mist into the air, above the ring, a number of times. Kabuki is in a class all by himself, and gives the spectators alot of excitment. The Invader #1 is a very good grappler, and used a great deal of scientific wrestling moves, against Kabuki's Fantastic Martial Arts. This was a very interesting encounter to witness.)
Ivan Koloff & Don Kernodle W. Pez Whatley & Mark Youngblood (Koloff scored a pin, on Youngblood with a devastating Holding Knee Drive/Dive Combination, off the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle. Koloff and Kernodle are a tough duo to contend with, and gave the fast combo of Whatley and Youngblood a great battle, with alot of action, through and through.)

Wahoo McDaniel D.DQ. Stan Hansen (Both Wahoo and Stan were cut very bloody, on their foreheads. First, Wahoo, and then Stan. The two wrestlers went at it Tooth N' Nail, from the very beginning, and conducted their own range war. They fought like two jungle beasts, bent on killing one another. This was a battle to end all battles, and the referee could not control the participants. Wahoo and Stan were disqualified, for their wild and unruly tactics, by the referee. McDaniel & Hansen brutalized each other, to no end. They seemed possessed, and set on destroying one another. All in all, both Wahoo and Stan were a bloody mess, in this torrid brawl.)

The Road Warriors (Animal & Hawk) W. Jimmy Valiant & King Kong Bundy (Hawk pinned Bundy, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Super Flying Clothesline Dive, off the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle. The Warriors work very well together, like a well oiled machine. They are very rough, in ring combat. In this skirmish, they were not as rough, as they usually are. The team of The Wild And Crazy Valiant and The Huge Bundy, are a very unusual duo, to say the least. This was a pretty good bout, with alot of action, through and through.)

Carlos Colon W. Tully Blanchard (This was a very exciting battle, with both Colon and Blanchard cut Bloody, on their foreheads. First, Tully was busted open, and then Carlos likewise. This is some feud, both men hate each other's guts, for sure. Colon even bit Tully's bloody forehead, to boot. This match was pretty wild. The end came, when Colon caught Blanchard, in a very well executed Back-Slide Cradle Pin, and Scored a most impressive victory.)

Ric Flair W. Ricky Steamboat (Both Flair and Steamboat displayed a great deal of brilliance in scientific wrestling, in this terrific encounter. Very many holds and counter holds were used throughout this sensational event.Steamboat used his fantastic Sleeper Hold, a couple of times,on Flair, but to no avail. Both of these great ring generals executed some tremendous moves: Chops, Suplexes, Cradles, many more, and of course, the dreaded Figure Four Leg-Lock. Flair locked the hold on Steamboat, and Ricky then reversed it. At one point, Steamboat grabbed Ric, off the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle, and lifted him up, in a High Military Press Style, and then Body Slammed him, to the mat. The end of this stupendous match came, when Steamboat used a Reverse Cradle Roll Up, on Ric, and Flair reversed it and pinned Ricky, for the three count. Flair, also, pulled Ricky's trunks, to secure the big victory. The referee, of course, was unaware that Flair held Steamboat's trunks, during the pin count. This was a super match, between two of the world's greatest pro grapplers, of all time. Watching them wrestle each other in the squared circle was a sight to be seen, by all pro wrestling fans. Flair and Steamboat are two tremendous technicians, to say the least, for sure.)

THIS CARD WAS PROMOTED AND PRESENTED BY THESE THREE ORGANIZATIONS: MID-ATLANTIC CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING/JIM CROCKETT PROMOTIONS, WORLD/GEORGIA CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING, AND WORLD WRESTLING COUNCIL/CAPITOL SPORTS, ALL IN CONJUNCITON WITH THE NATIONAL WRESTLING ALLIANCE (N.W.A.), THE MAJOR LEAGUE OF PRO WRESTLING.

P.A.

NOTES ON THE ABOVE CARD:

This was the first card promoted by The National Wrestling Alliance, in The New York City area, in over twenty years. Weeks before, the promoters, had been billing, the card, as a night of champions, and indeed it was.

Such Stars, as Dusty Rhodes (The American Dream), appeared. He faced The Assassin, another great athlete, in his own right. Carlos Colon and Tully Blanchard have been feuding for some time. On television, prior to their match in The Meadowlands, they both said that they would defeat the other. This match had a lot of action, with both athletes giving it their all. Carlos, finally, beat Tully, with a stunning victory.

Les Thornton, The World's Junior Heaveyweight Champion, put his belt on the line against, a formadable opponent, in El Gran Apollo. Seeing Les in action, is always a treat, because he is such a great athlete, taking nothing away from his opponent, Apollo who is a very good athlete in his own right.

Jake Roberts did battle with Ronnie Garvin. This bout was a pretty good match all around. The National Tag Team Title was on the line, as The Champions, The Road Warriors (Animal & Hawk), defended their belts against the team of Jimmy Valiant and King Kong Bundy. Both teams looked very good in mat action. The Warriors showed the fans what real champions are made of.

In a stunning upset, The Invader #1 defeated The Great Kabuki. Kabuki came to the ring in his usual apparal wearing his mask and carring with him his sticks, that he waves in the air. At the begining of this wild encounter, Kabuki spit his strange green mist from his mouth.

The World Tag Team Title was on the line, as Champions, Ivan Koloff and Don Kernodle, were being challenged by Pez Whatley and Mark Youngblood. Whatley and Youngblood gave The Champs a good going over. The match, finally, ended with Koloff and Kernodle defeating their opponents. Two mat Veterans, Stan Hansen and Wahoo McDaniel , went at it like lions. These two athletes have no love for one another. Finally, the referee had enough of this insane match, and disqualified both athletes. The fued between Stan and Wahoo is far from over. Each athlete is still bent on destroying the other.

The N.W.A. World's Champion, Ric Flair, did battle with Ricky Steamboat. This match was nothing short of excellent. Flair and Steamboat are two of the fines wrestlers in the mat sport today. During this hard fought bout, each men used every wrestling maneuver he could think of, to defeat the other. Steamboat did not win the match, but showed the fans, nevertheless what it takes to go in the ring with a Champion like Flair. Perhaps, some day, in the near future, Steamboat will be fortunate to take the belt away from Ric, or who-ever is champion at that moment. Time will only tell.

In the opinion of this writer, who has seen many wrestling cards througout this country, this will have to go down as one of the greastest cards wrestling promoters have every billed. If this card is any indication of what is to follow, then you can be sure that the next card in The Meadowlands on August 20th, 1984, will be just as good, if not better.

D.DQ.
Dick Murdoch & Adrian Adonis

(FIRST FALL- Adonis pinned Afa, with a Flying Big Body Splash, after some double team action.)

(SECOND FALL- Afa pinned Murdoch, with a Samoan Holding Cross Back-Body Drop.)

(THIRD FALL- Both teams were disqualified, by the referee, because they were all in the ring at the same time, going wild. The referee was also struck, to the mat, by one of The Samoans, during this fall.)

Jesse Ventura W. Special Delivery Jones (By submission, with an Over The Shoulder Back-Breaker.)

Greg Valentine W. Tito Santana -C.O.R. (The end came, when Greg gave Tito an Over The Knee Spine-Breaker, outside of the ring, on the ringside floor. Greg then got back into the ring, on time, while Tito was in pain, outside of the ring. The referee, of course, counted Santana out, outside of the ring, and gave the bout to Valentine.)

Andre The Giant W. David Shultz (By pin, with a Flying Leg Drop/Sit-Down Splash Combination, after a big foot to the upper body.)

Mad Dog Vachon W. Steve Lombardi (By pin, after a Pile-Driver.)

Paul Orndorff W. Salvatore Bellomo (By pin, after a Pile-Driver.)

Bob Orton, Jr. W. Jay Strongbow (By pin, with a Backwards Flying Forearm, to the throat/Big Body Splash Combination, off the second ring rope/corner turnbuckle.)

Sgt. Slaughter W. The Iron Sheik (Boot Camp, Anything Goes, Falls Count Anywhere In The Building Match: Both wrestlers fought like demons from hell, possessed, and out to destroy one another. The Sarge used his marine helmet, and riding crop, on The Sheik. The Crazy Iranian then used a leather belt, on The Sarge, to no end. The Big Marine's forehead was cut bloody, by The Sheik's Curved Iranian Boot, which was loaded, with a foreign object. The big marine then went nuts, and used his foreign object loaded marine combat boot, on The Crazy Iranian. Both fierce combantants faces were bloody, to say the least. The Sheik used a well executed Salto Suplex, to down the big marine. The Sheik then used a tremendous High Vertical Suplex, on The Sarge. The Sheik then took off one of his loaded Curved Iranian Boots, to use on the sarge, when the big marine then hit The Crazy Iranian, with his devestating Cannon Clothesline Move. The Sarge then got The Sheik's boot, and nailed The Bloody Iranian, with it. The big bloody marine, of course, pinned The Sheik, to score a most impressive victory. The Sarge then spoke to the fans, and said, "God Bless America". Slaughter then waved a small American Flag, to the cheering spectators. This was, indeed, another torrid chapter, in this never ending "U.S.A. VS. Iran feud.)
